

How Art Becomes Public

What can Public Art do in the town/city environment ?

Engagement

- Play
- Learning
- Discovery

Creating Place

Gateways – Iconic
Markers

Creating gathering places

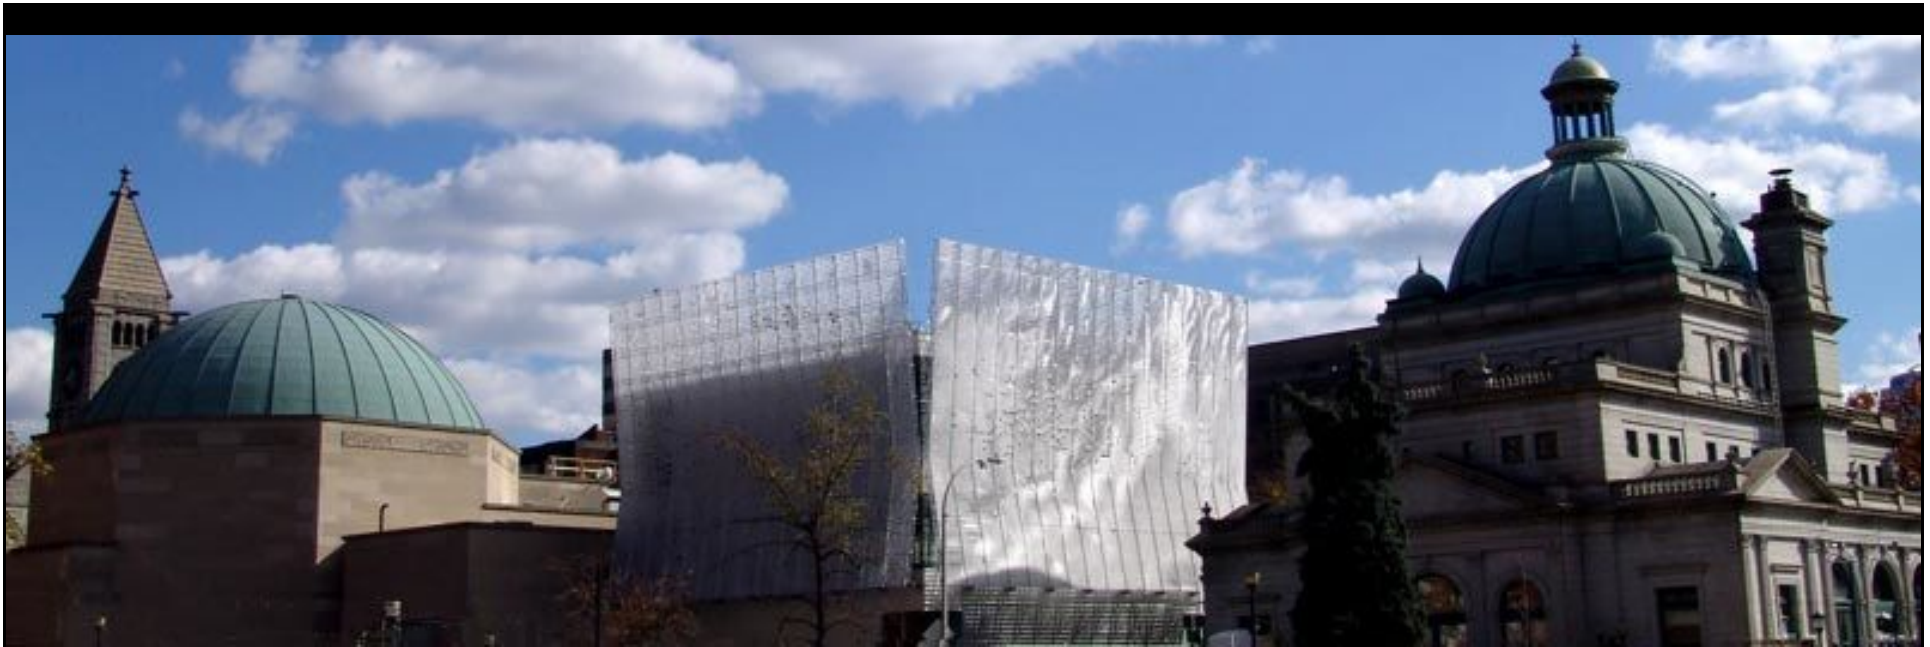

Artist – Larry Kirkland

*Artist- Larry Kirkland
Headwaters. Sculptural granite pieces in and around an existing fountain at Texas Tech University, Lubbock*

Artist – Ned Kahn

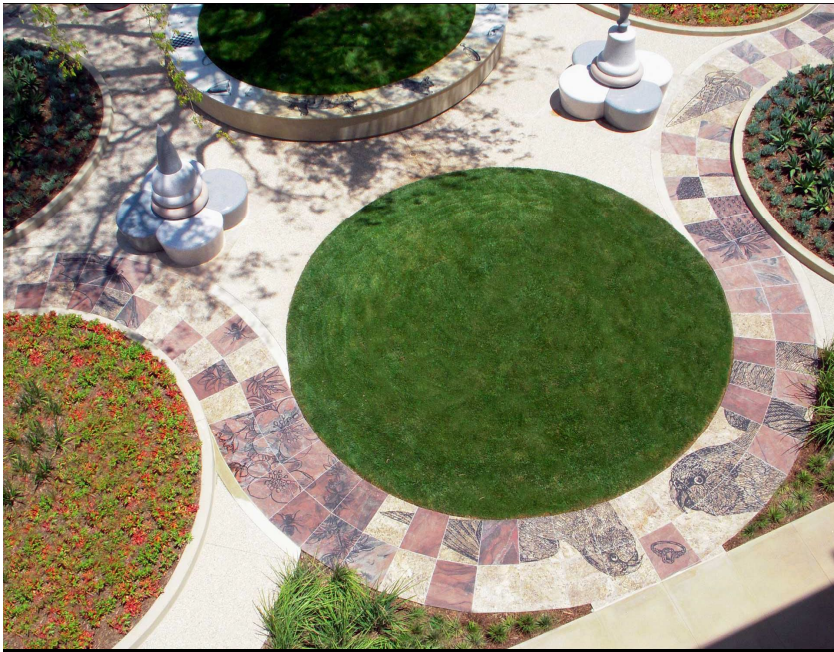

Artist – Ned Kahn

- Even parking decks can have character and help define a place

WHAT CAN BE DONE AT THE STREET LEVEL ?

Artist - Nancy Blum & Jack Mackie

Artist – Nancy Blum

Artist – Michelle Turner

Artist – Susan Harbage Page

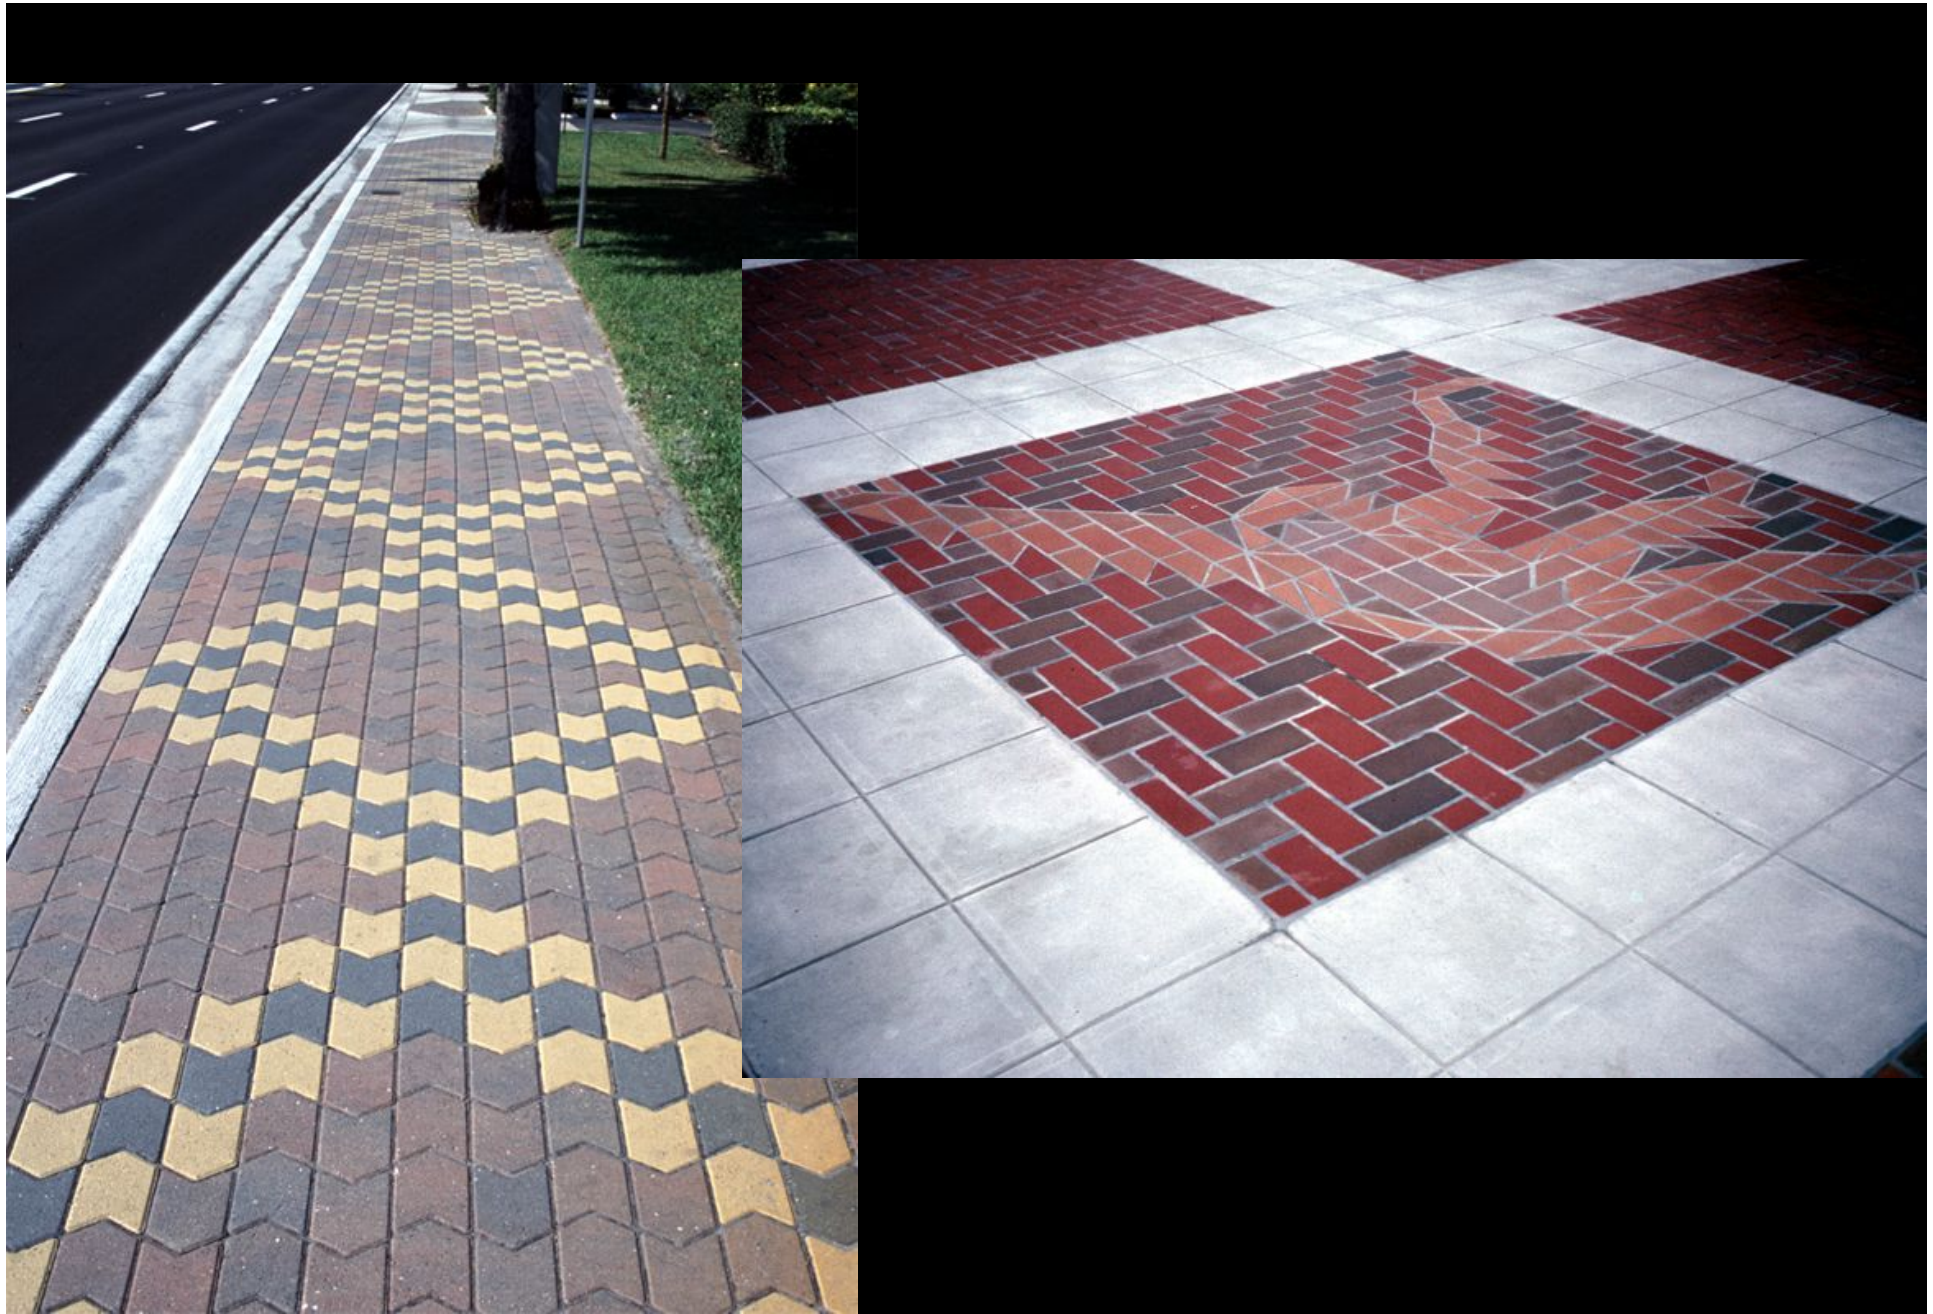

Artist – Jack Mackie

Artists – Jim Hirschfield & Sonya Ishii

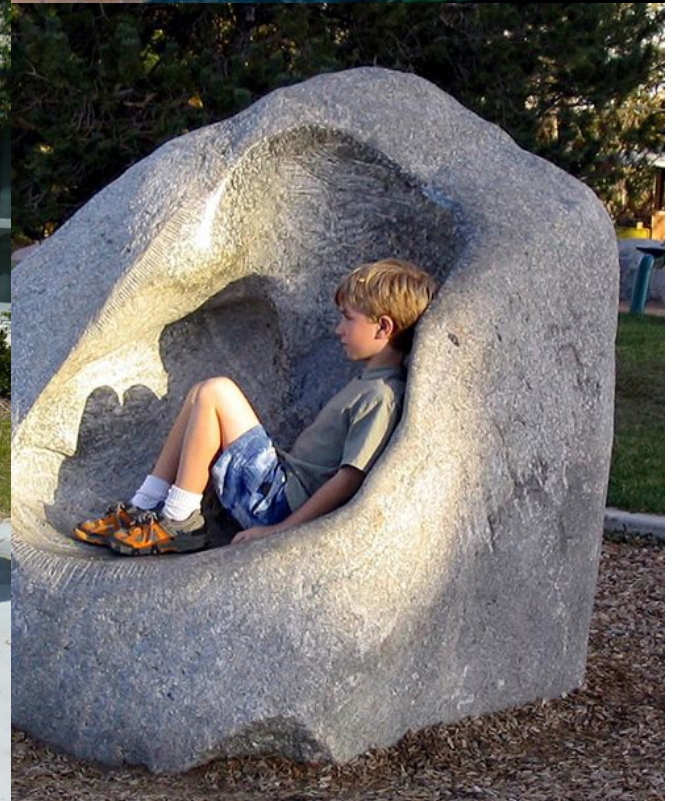

Artist - Ellen Sollod

Artist – David Dahlquist

Temporary – Store front Art

Lighting

Artist - David Dahlquist

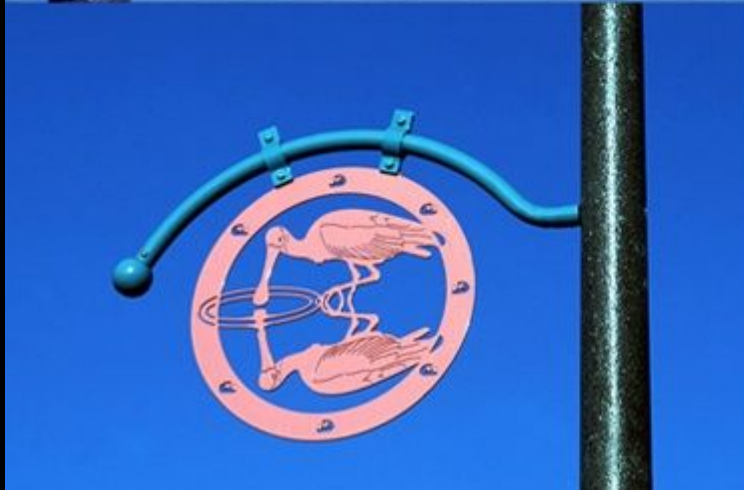

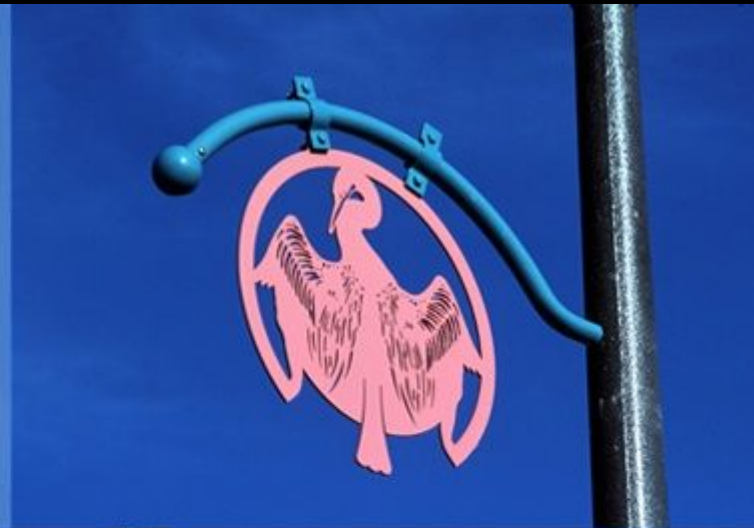

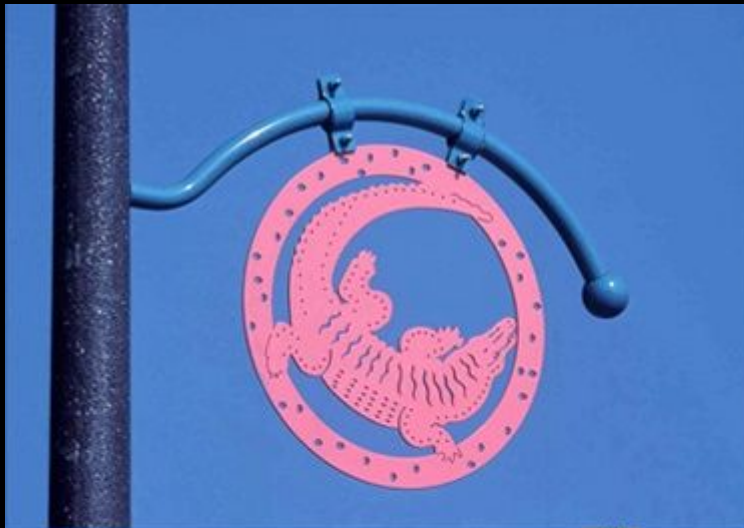

Artist – Barbara Gryguttis

Wayfinding

Gateways

- Iconic
- Markers
- Announce arrival
- Help define a Place

Ed Carpenter

Artist- Paul Hobson

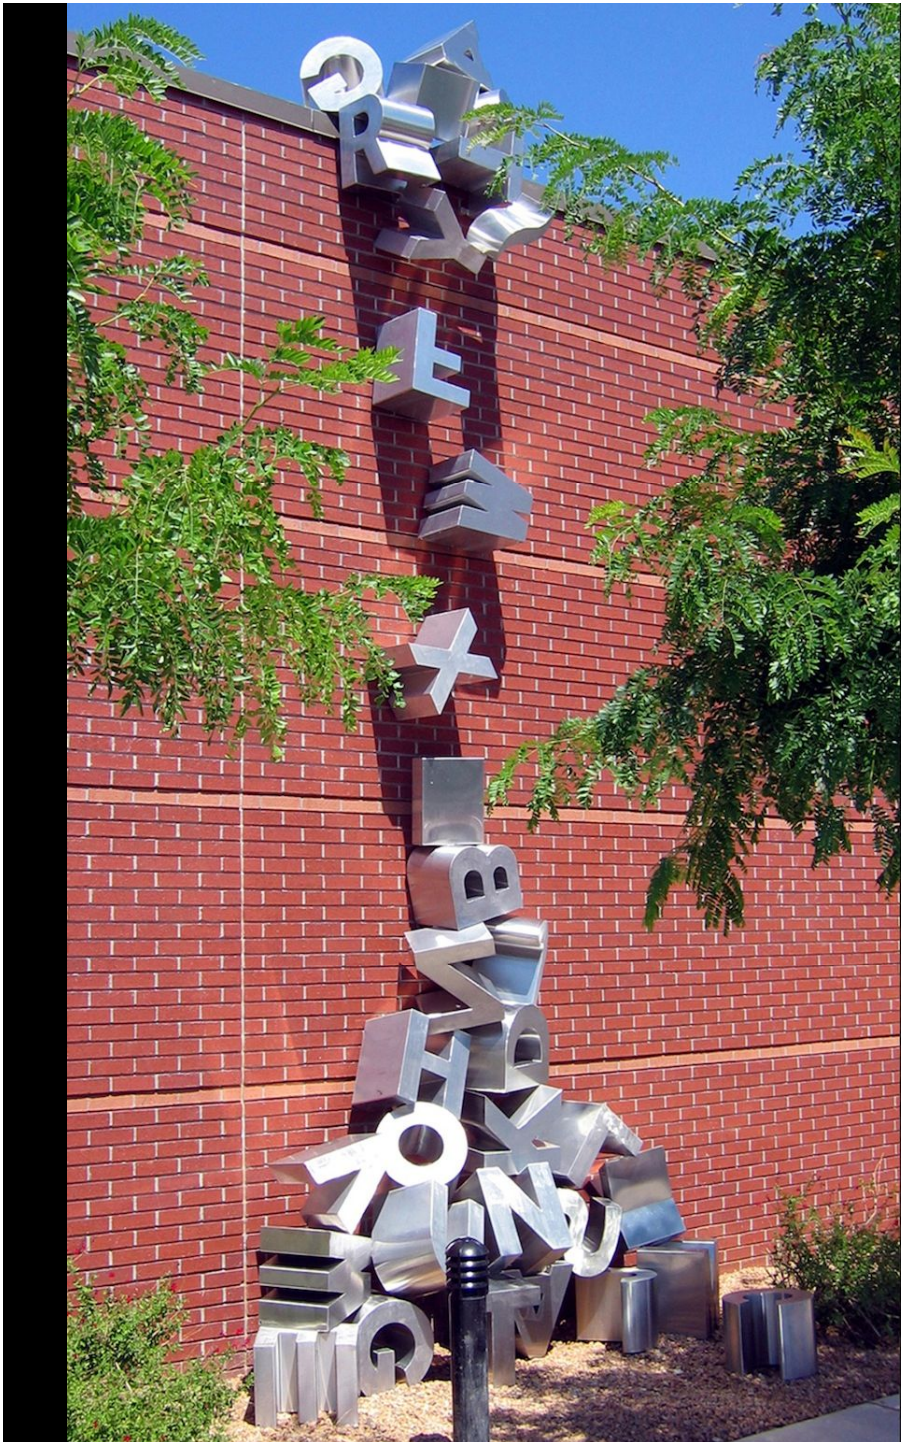

AGRICULTURE AND INDUSTRY PORTAL - 2007
"PORTALS IN TIME"

NATIONAL CITY BOULEVARD STREETScape AND
FOUNTAIN PLAZA PROMENADE PROJECT
CITY OF NATIONAL CITY
ONE OF SIX ELEMENTS DEPICTING CULTURAL AND HISTORICAL ASSETS OF NATIONAL CITY

Artist – Joe Miller

Erwin Redl

W. Trade St. underpass
at I-77 Charlotte, NC

TELLING THE STORY

History

Culture

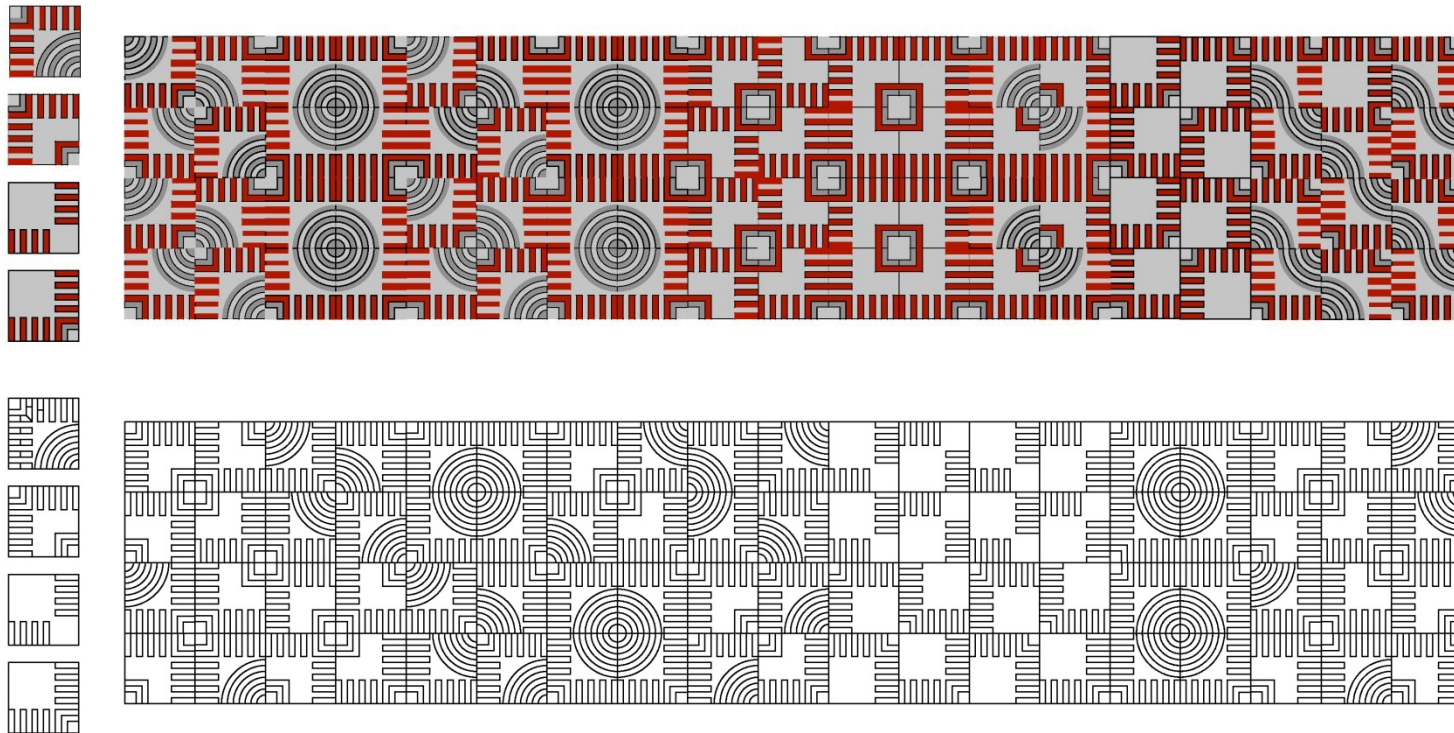

Community's special identity

HISTORIC BUILDING DETAILS

ARTIST DESIGN PATTERNING FOR RETAINING WALLS

-

ARTIST'S CONCEPTUAL INTERPRETATION

Community Based & Performance Events

Capital Allocation of funds from City & funders

Artist Selection

Community Engagement

Design Development

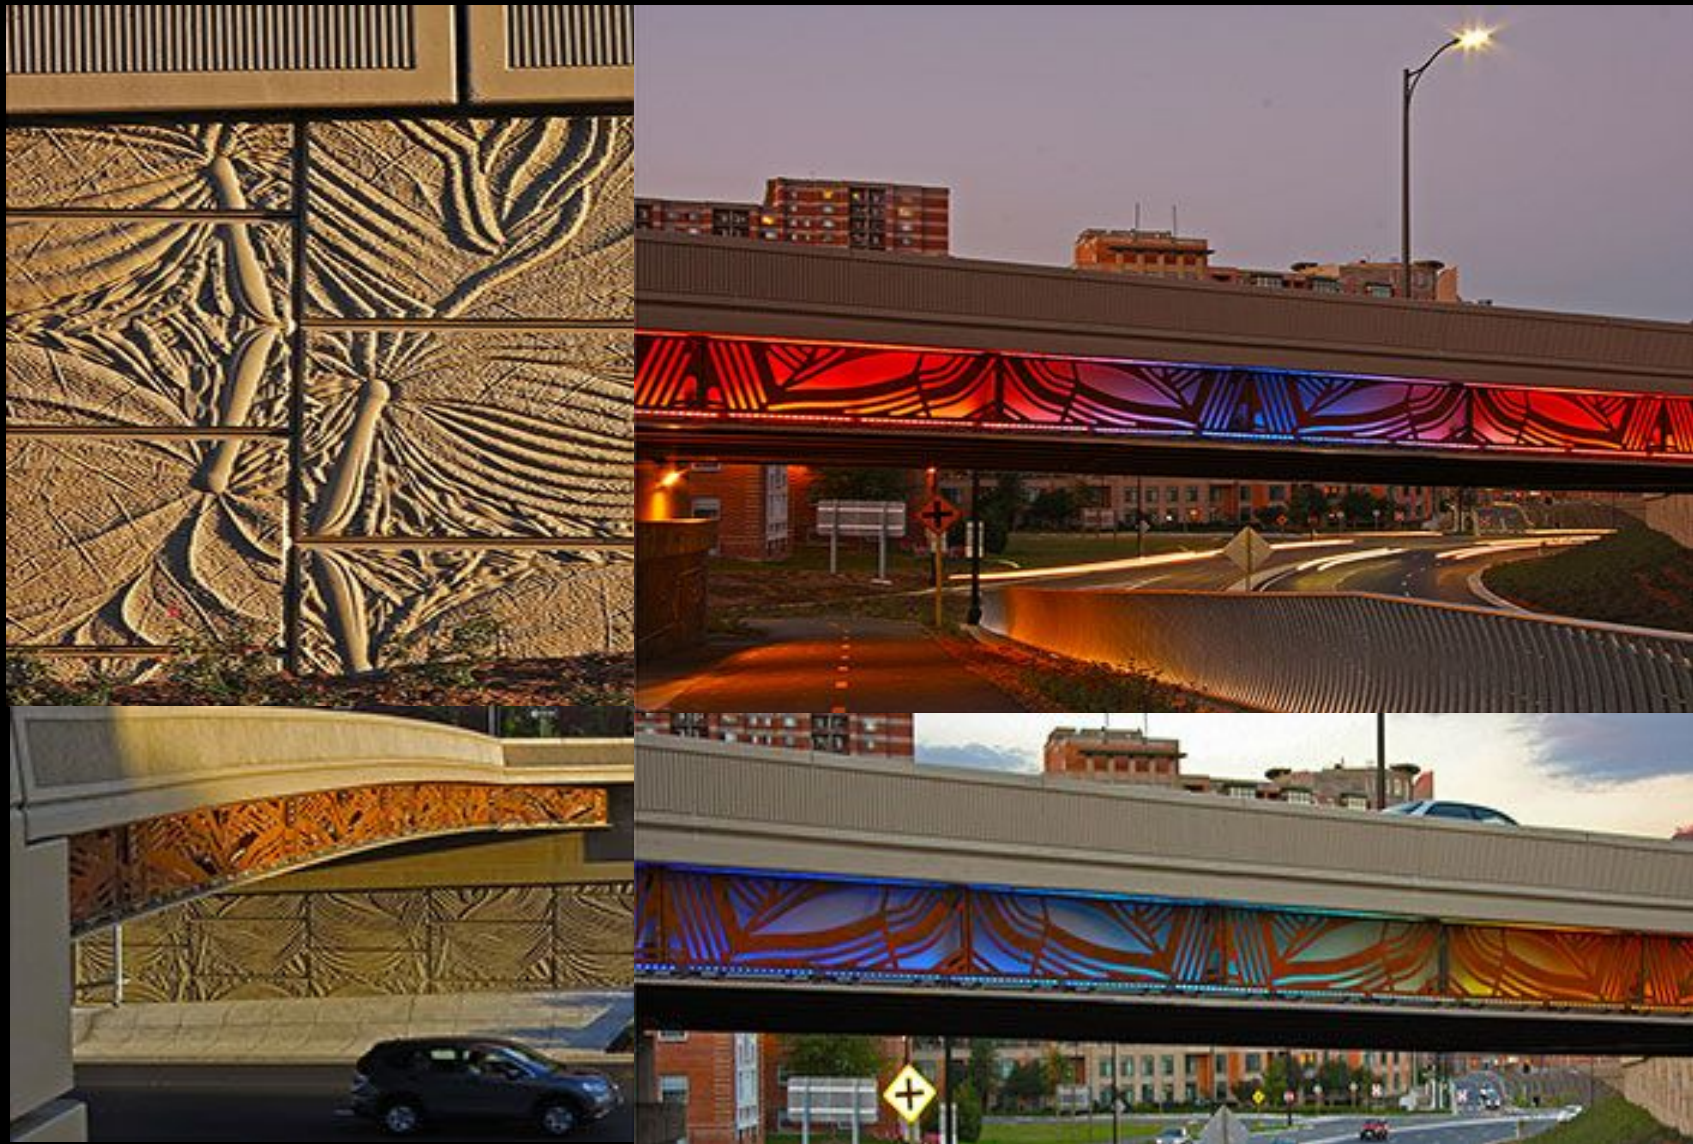

Fabrication & Installation

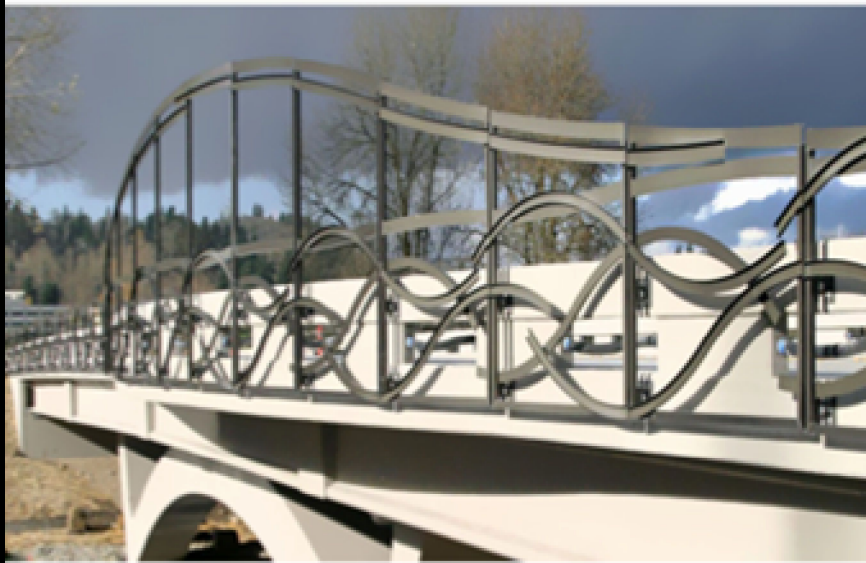

Final Acceptance

Infrastructure

Artist - Vicki Scuri

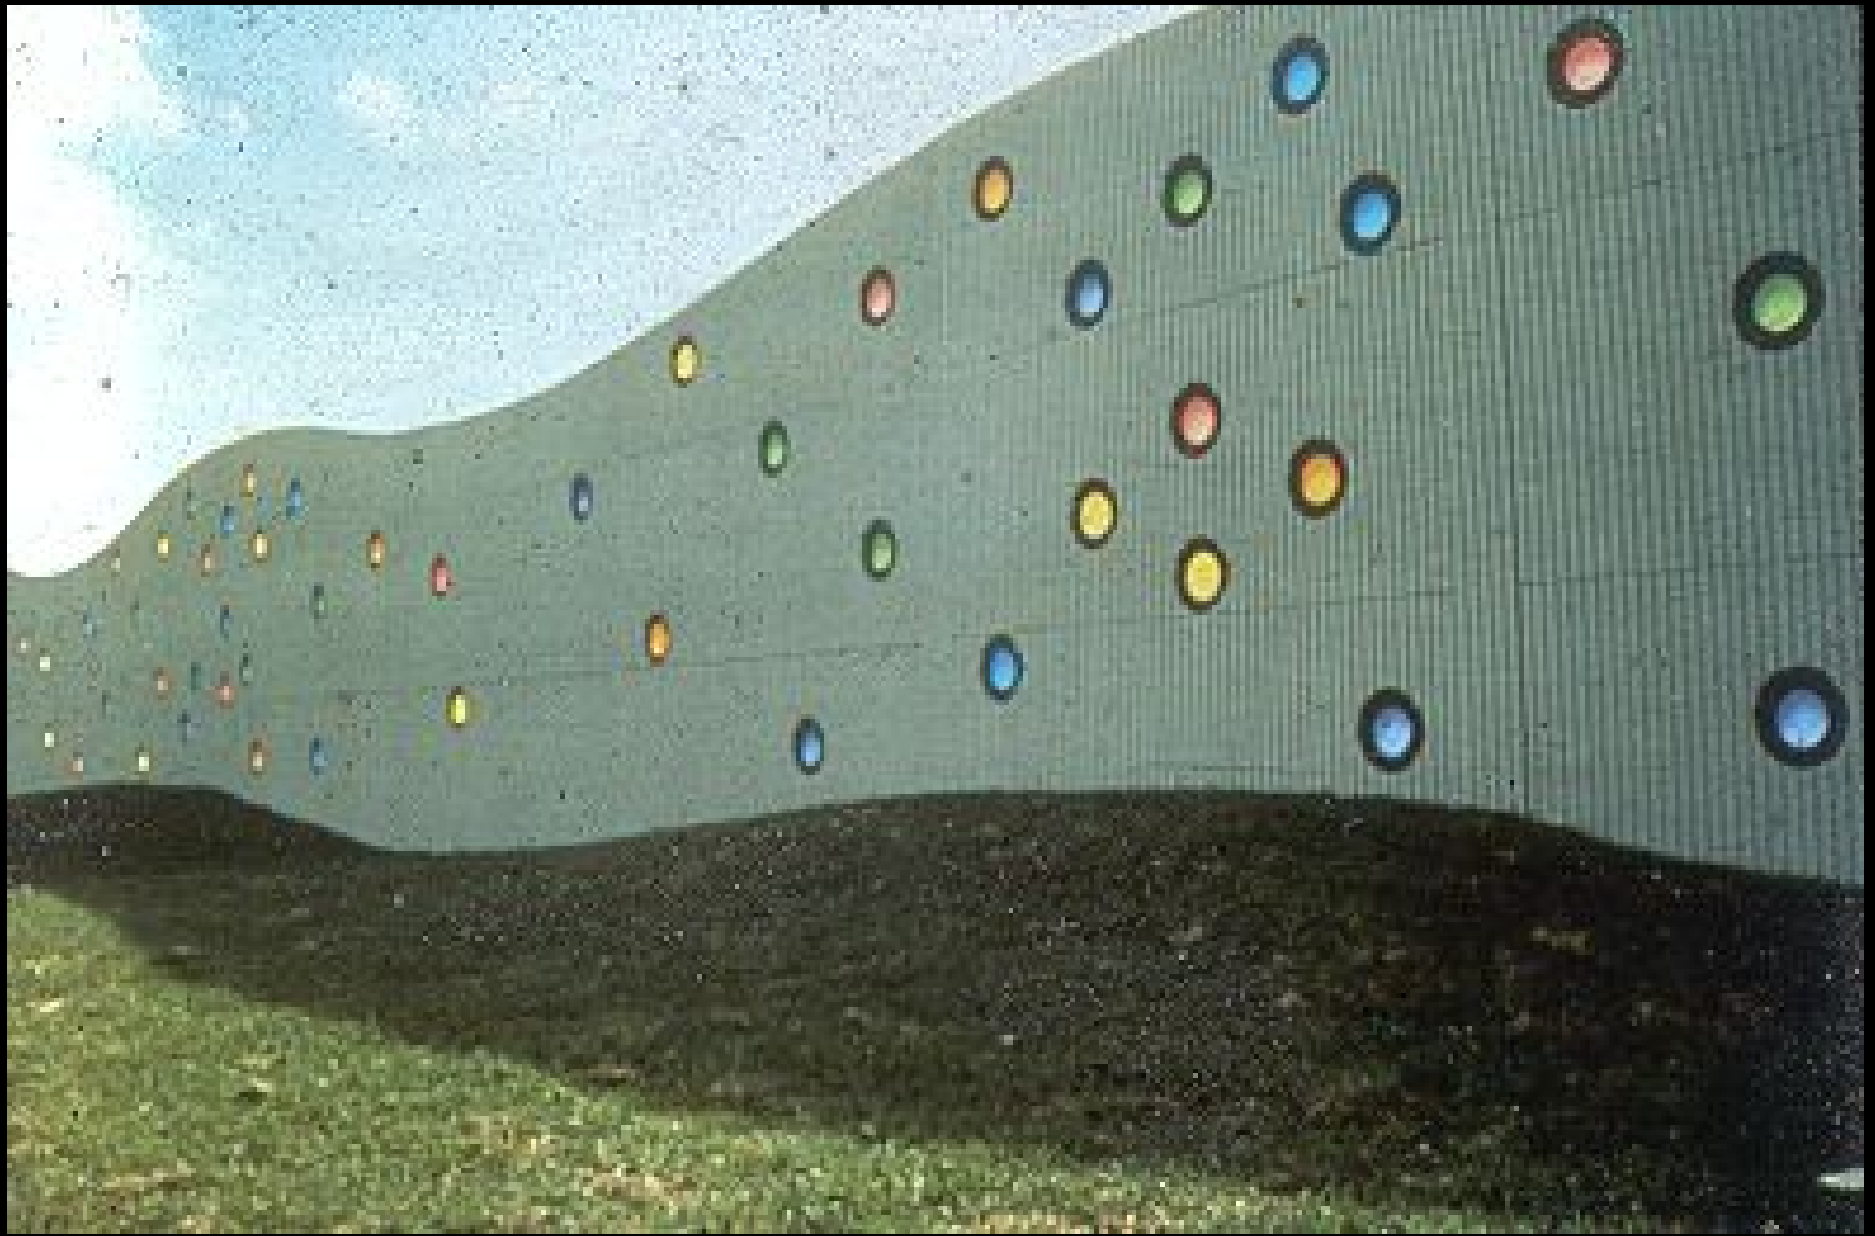

Top L & R - Barbara Grygutis • L Left – Cliff Garten • L Right – Vicki Scuri

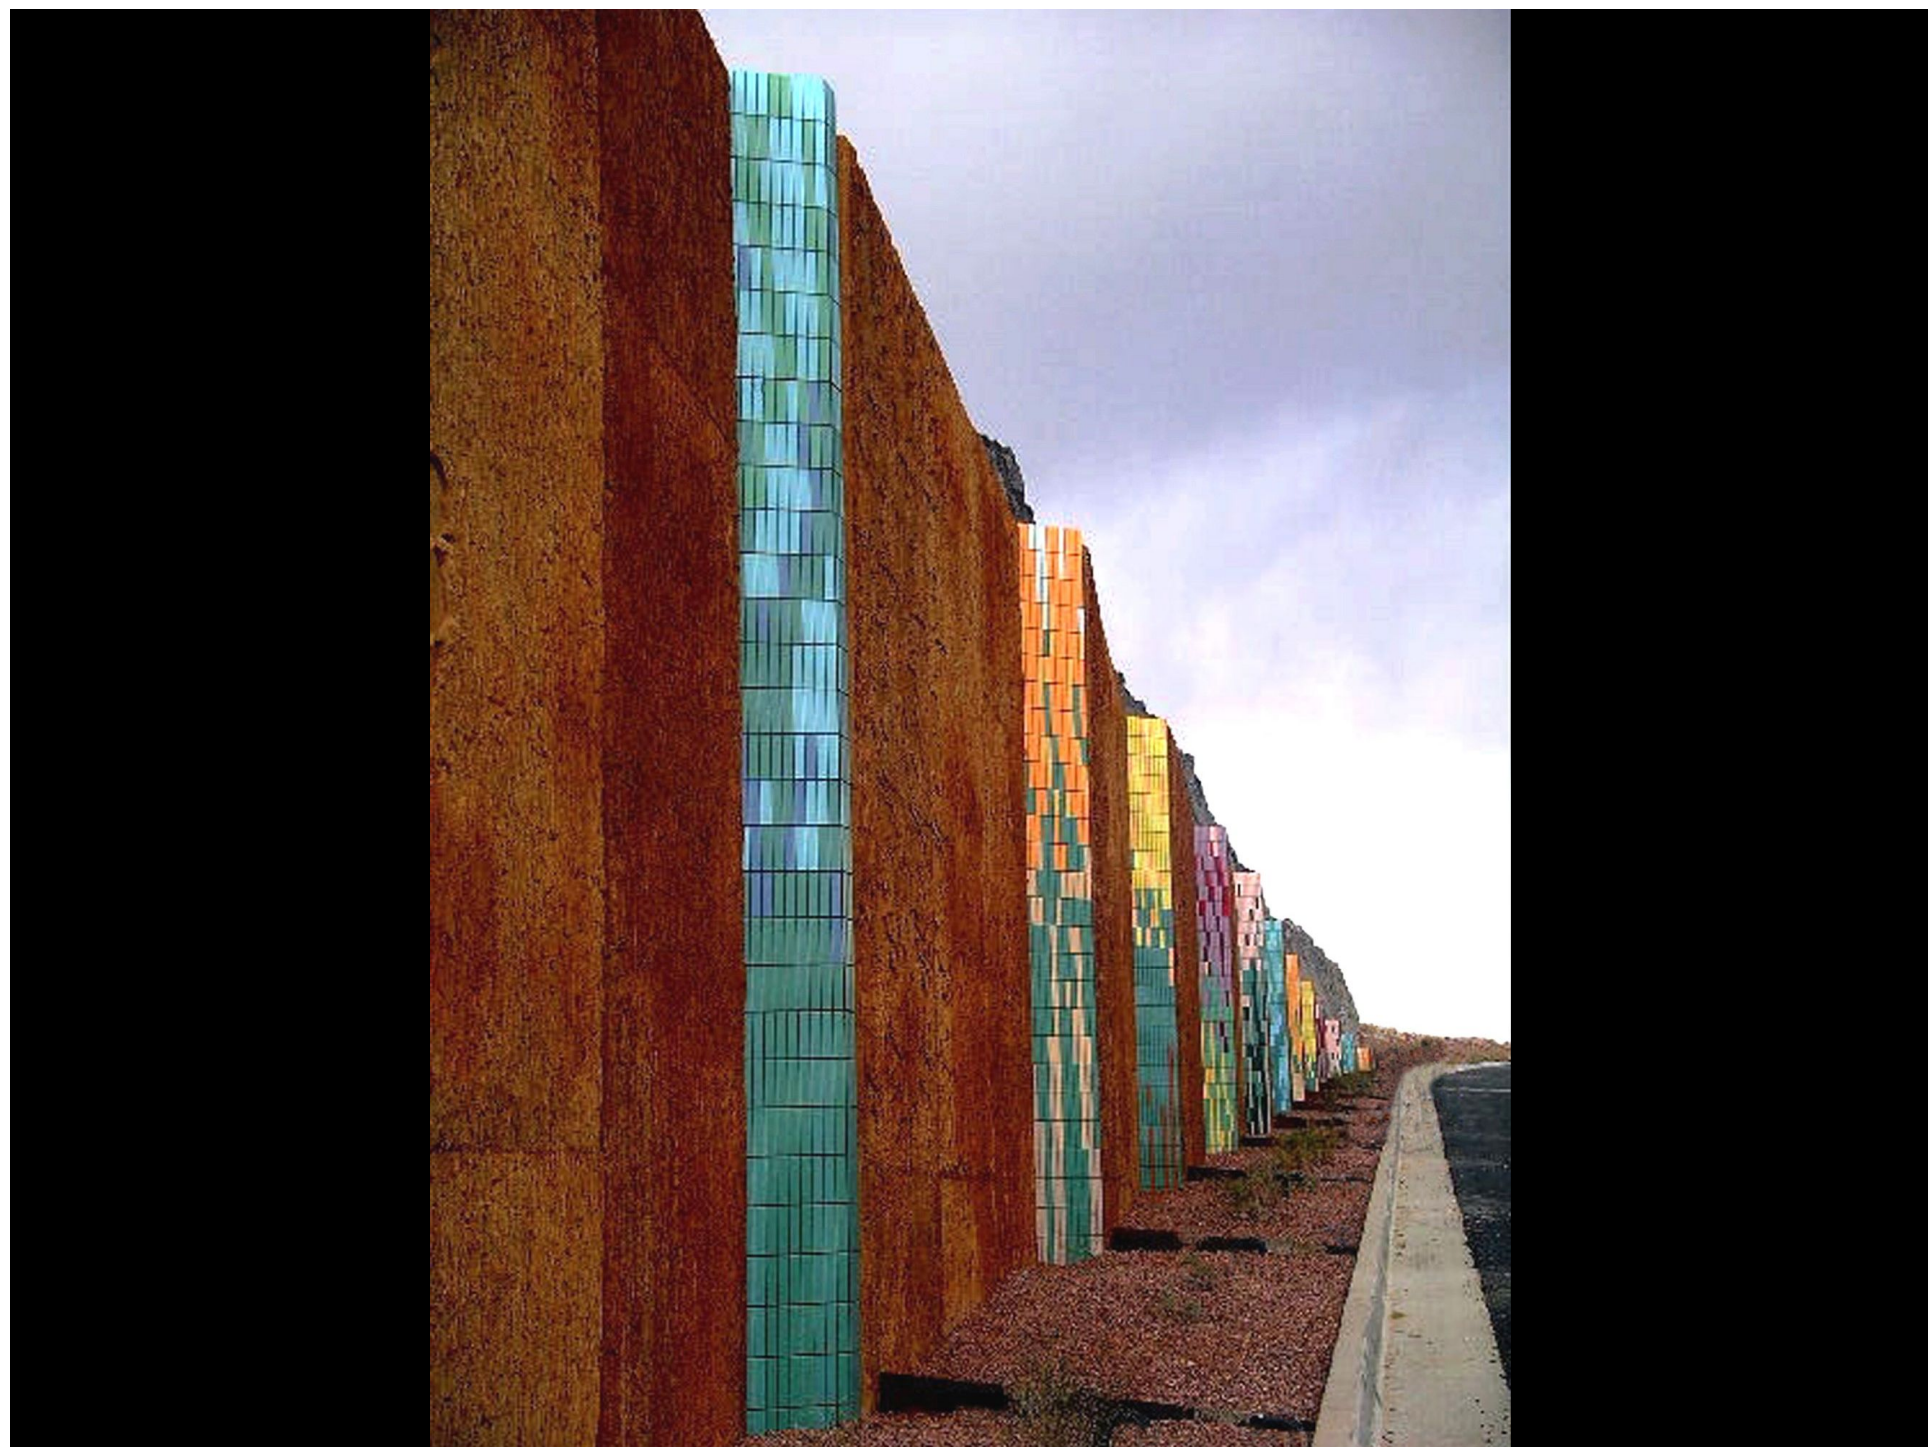

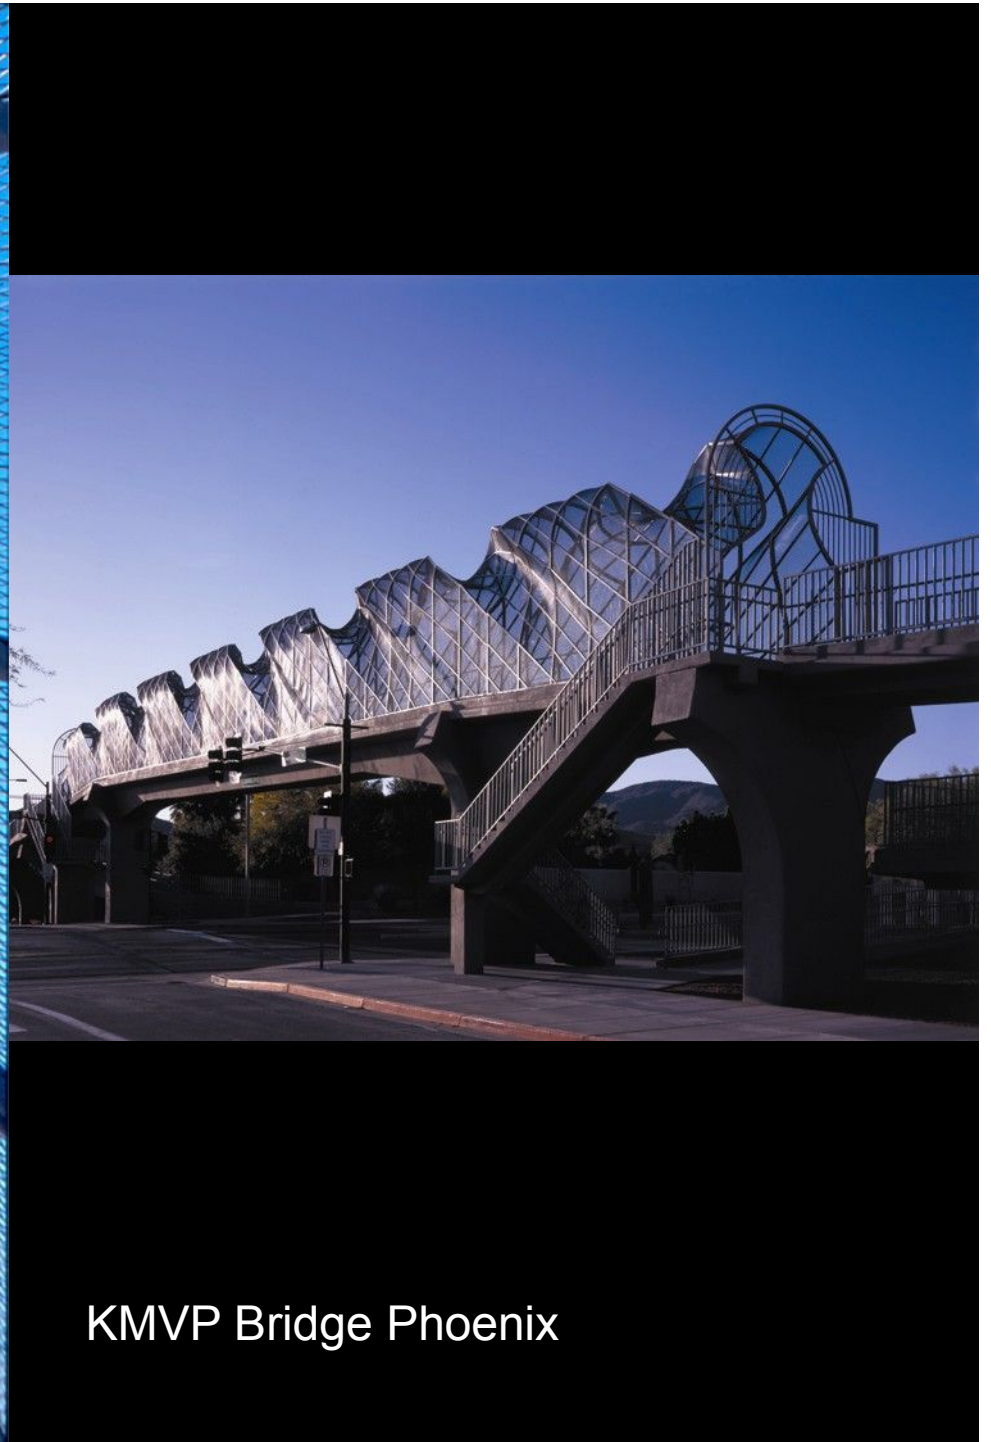

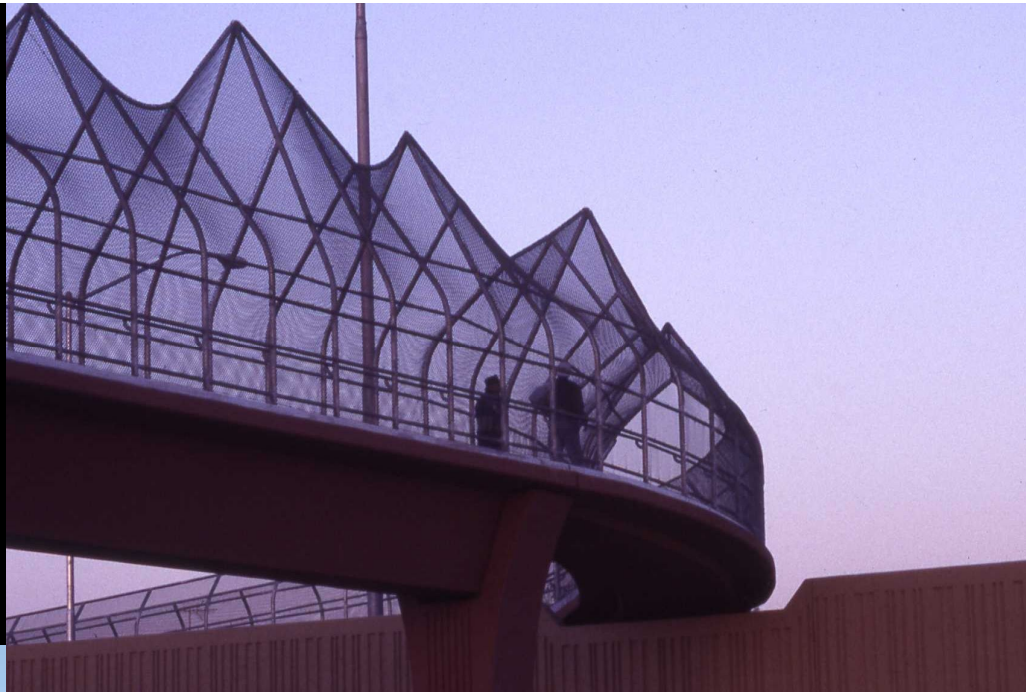

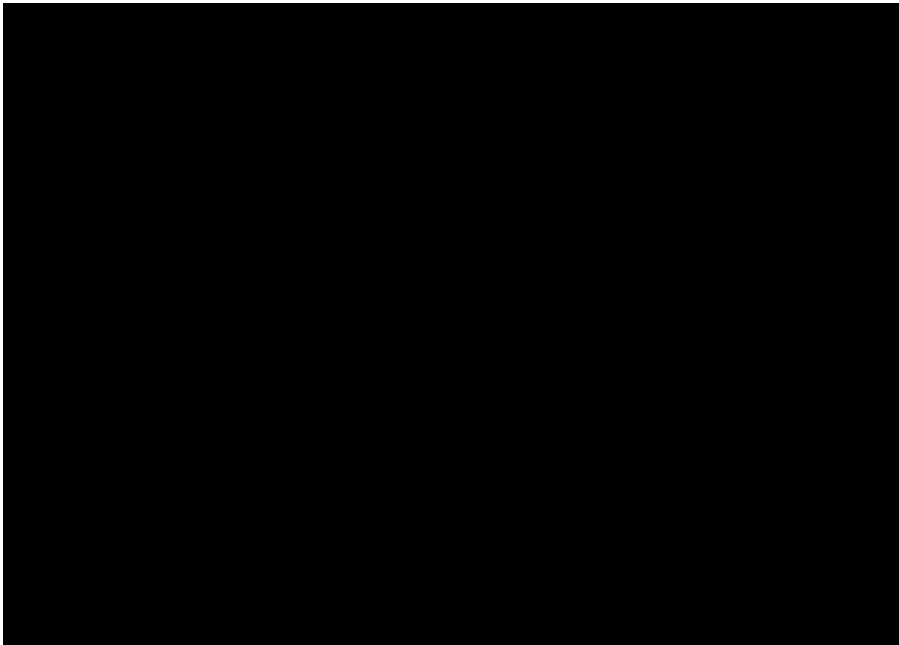

Artist – Jack Mackie

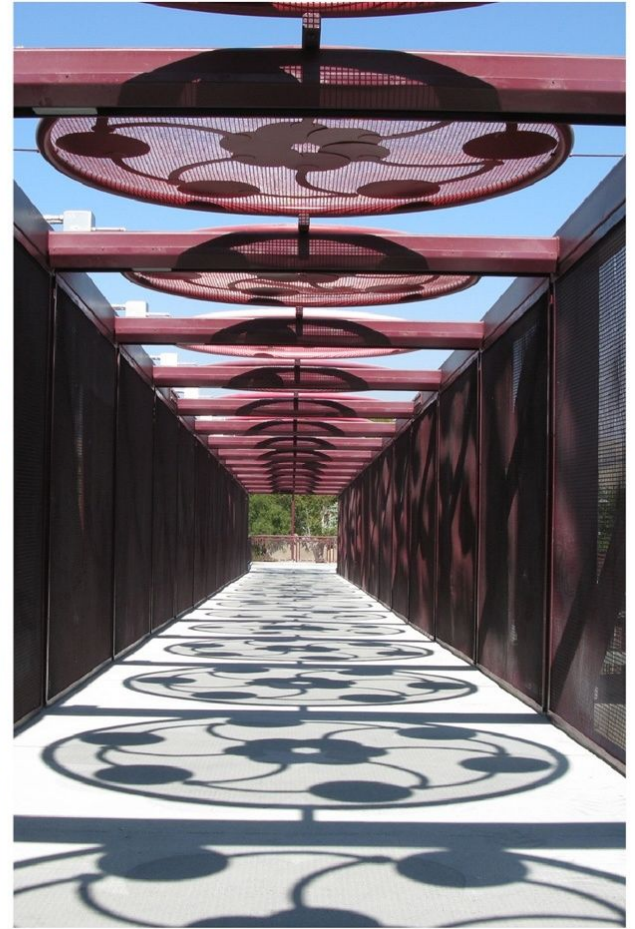

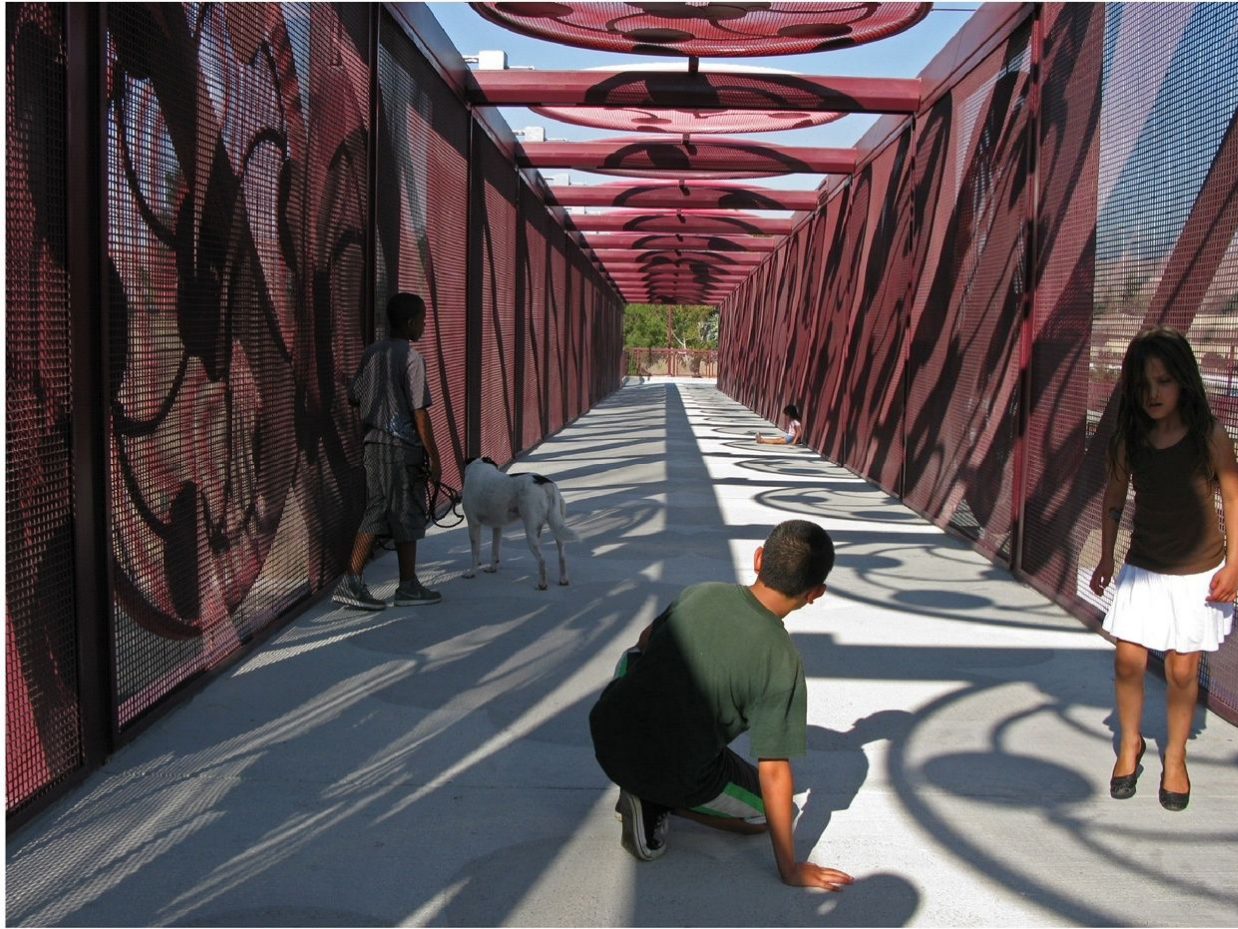

KMVP Bridge Phoenix

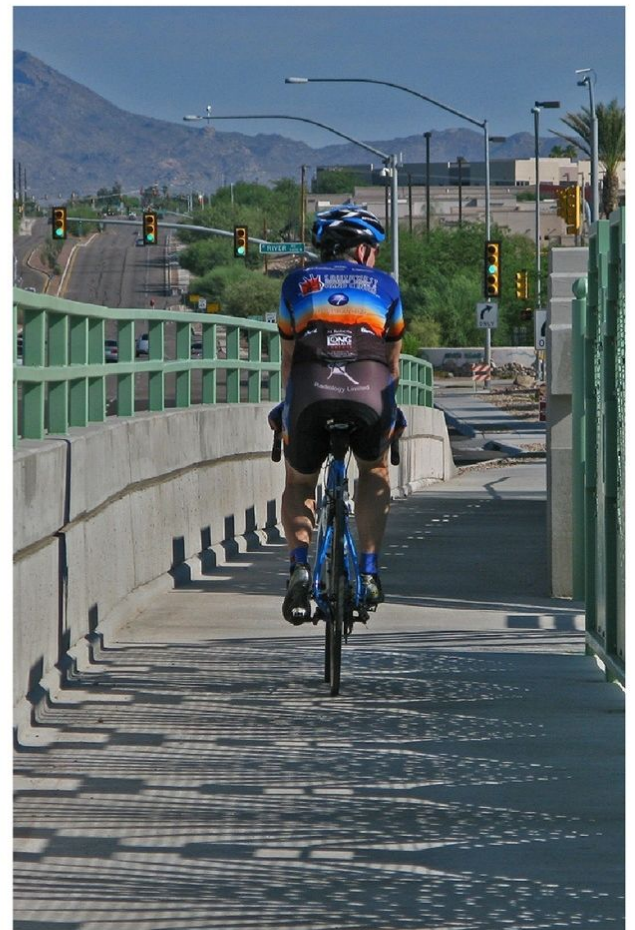

Nesbit Mountain Pass bridge

Artist – Ed Carpenter

How Art becomes Public

Responsibility To Funding

Aesthetics

Public
Art

Community Engagement

Site / Context

QUESTIONS ?

THANK YOU

